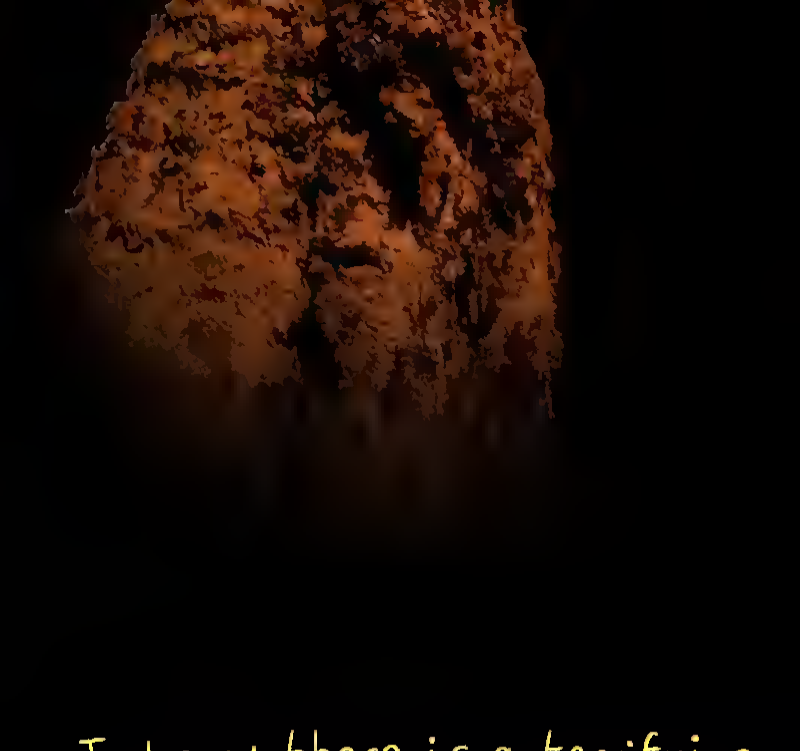
hello
night...

Street lamps bathe the world
in an eerie yellow glow

Familiar things, like trees and houses, look unsettling



I know there is a terrifying goblin statue on this path

BOBA
FAKS

I know it is grinning
at me in the darkness.

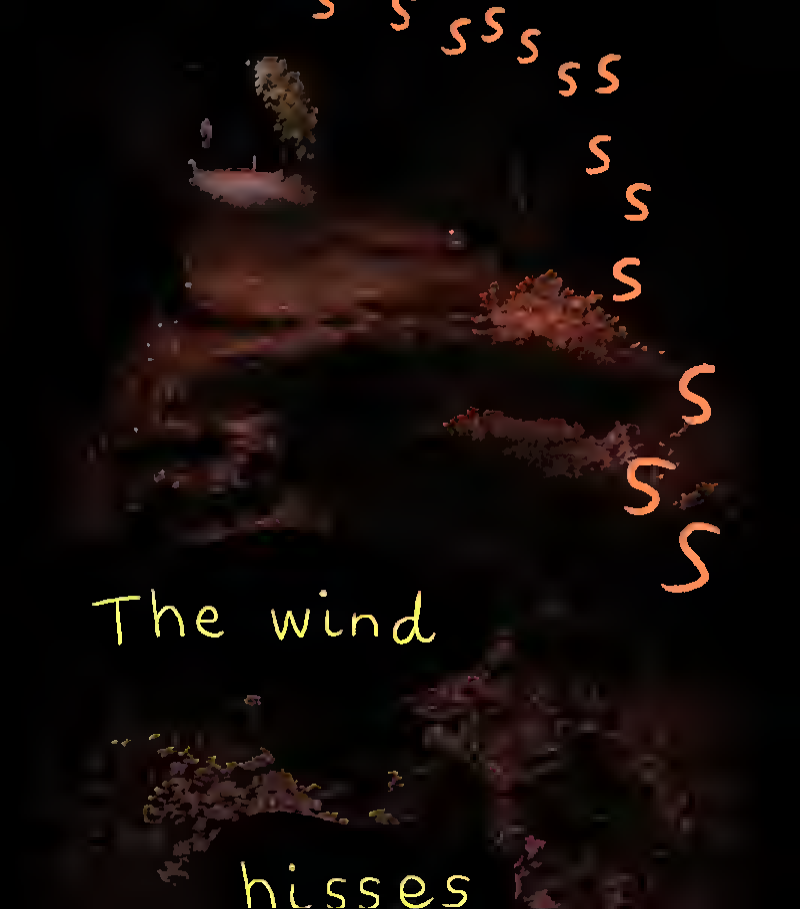
I

feel

Johand

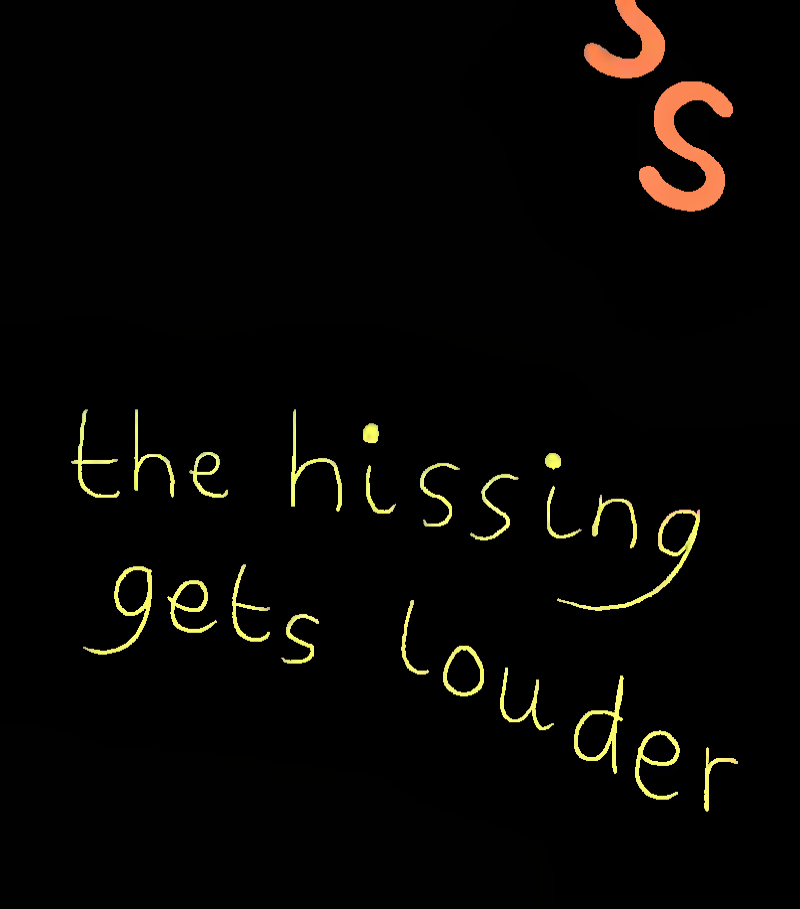
shiver

he is afraid.



sssssssssssssss
The wind
hisses

through the trees
sssssssss



SS
the hissing
gets louder

S
S

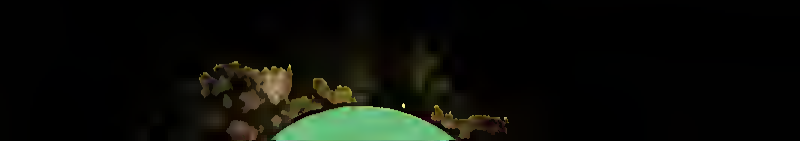
and it turns into a guy rollerblading past me like this:

Suddenly,
everything stopped
feeling spooky



– it felt silly.

Out of the darkness
came a single absurd duck quack

quack

and then I saw a cow.

A really massive cow.
